

MITCHELL RE-ELECTED

United Mine Workers Again Honor Leader.

CONGRESS FINISHES WORK

State Committees Proposition to Operators.

15 Cents Per Month in Addition to Present 10 Cents Per Capita for Strikers.

Indianapolis, Jan. 26.—President John Mitchell, Vice-President Lewis and Secretary-Treasurer Wilson of the United Mine Workers have been re-elected without opposition, according to the report of the convention, announced today. The full vote of the organization was not cast. Mitchell received 25,635 votes; Lewis, 21,819; Wilson, 21,875.

The report of the scale committee was accepted. Indianapolis was selected for next national convention, a committee was appointed to draft a memorial in honor of the Harwick mine victims. An adjournment was taken until tomorrow afternoon. The United Mine Workers practically completed their work by deciding on demands to be made for the central competitive field. The report of the committee asks the operators to sign the run-of-mine mining scale in four districts; that the absolute run mine basis be adopted; that the differential of 7 cents in Illinois be established in Indiana, where the differential is 12 cents; and in Ohio and west Pennsylvania, where it ranges from 10 to 25 cents. There is also a demand for uniform wages for all outside labor and uniform wages for inside labor. The Mine Workers have authorized levying of 15 cents a month in addition to the present 10 cents per capita for the support of strikes. This increase will go into effect at once and on basis of a membership of 290,000 in standing should bring into the national treasury approximately $70,000 a month.

SOCIETY

A very pretty home wedding, attended by a few of the intimate friends of the bride and groom, was that of Miss Grace Lewis and Lieut. Sherman A. White, Jr., A. A. Coleman last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jacobs. Rev. Dr. Paden of the First Presbyterian church performed the ceremony at 8:30 o'clock. The bride, who was attended by a lovely gown of white satin made on trains, with an exquisite lace and tulle affair, carried a long veil and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Mr. Harbison of Fort Douglas was the best man. At the appointed hour an orchestra stationed in the hall played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" and the bride, leaning on the arm of her bridesmaid, descended the stairs. At the entrance to the parlor they were met by the groom and his best man and advanced to the altar. The bride was escorted by Lieut. White. While the service was being read the orchestra played very softly the Intermezzo from Cavalleria Rusticana. As the last words were spoken, the wedding march by Mendelssohn. A bank of palms formed a background for the bride and groom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white tulle and lace, with a long veil and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. On her side of the bank of palms were vases of American Beauty roses. The decorations were all in pink and white. The bride's bridesmaid, Miss White, wore a gown of white tulle and lace, with a long veil and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The groom wore a suit of dark blue cloth and a white shirt with a white bow tie. The wedding was a very pretty affair and was attended by a few of the intimate friends of the bride and groom.

BEFORE DIEHL'S BAR.

One Greek, two negroes, two Hebrews, a Hawaiian, an Irishman and a colored Spaniard figured in the cases before Diehl's Bar yesterday afternoon.

William Geloulus, the Greek; Rose Johnson, American, and Max and Joe Sadler, Hebrews, were tried for fighting and disturbing the peace of Franklin avenue Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell, colored, testified that they heard a scrap in progress in the adjoining house, which is occupied by Geloulus and the Johnson woman. Miss Johnson testified that Joe Sadler came to her house and demanded possession of the furniture.

"He pushed open the door against me and I hauled off and smashed him, I admit to that," she said. "Then he kicked me in a very bad place. If you want me to judge, I can show you."

"No, no," exclaimed his Honor, motioning to the bailiff as the witness made certain ominous movements. John Blair, the colored Spaniard from Jamaica, was present during some of the excitement and testified that Miss Johnson had Sadler down and was beating him in approved style before the police arrived.

Sadler likewise testified that the woman had him down and that he was yelling bloody murder and calling on Blair to save his life. He said he went to the house looking for his brother and said nothing about furniture. The woman, he claimed, dragged him inside and began to pummel him without any preliminary.

Judge Diehl decided that the affair was merely one of the amenities peculiar to Franklin avenue society and released the quartette with a warning to avoid further performances of a similar nature.

There was a young man from Hawaii, "Nimu" was the name of the Hawaii. When he got thirty days for his vagabond ways. He chuckled with evident jollity.

A charitable impulse got R. Morrissey into trouble. He had just been released from jail, where he had served ten days for assault, when he walked back into the jail yard and threw a dime through the window for one of his companions to use in buying tobacco. He was detected in the act by the Chief, who had him imprisoned on the charge of trespass. Judge Diehl decided that his motive was not criminal and let him go.

When the name of James Haley was called a deep silence hung over the courtroom. Haley was not present.

The arresting officer explained that he had looked for the prisoner in the front door of the jail and that Haley, being familiar with the architecture of the building through his former tenancy, had gone out through the kitchen door as the front door was being locked. The charge was a simple case of vagrancy, and the court is in hopes that Haley continued his flight beyond the city limits.

And many other painful and serious ailments from which most mothers suffer, can be avoided by the use of "Mother's Friend." This great remedy is a God-send to women, carrying them through their most critical ordeal with safety and no pain.

No woman who uses "Mother's Friend" need fear the suffering and danger incident to birth; for it robs the ordeal of its horror and insures safety to life of mother and child, and leaves her in a condition more favorable to speedy recovery. The child is also healthy, strong and good natured. Our book "Motherhood," is worth its weight in gold to every woman, and will be sent free in plain envelope by addressing application to Bradfield Regulator Co. Atlanta, Ga.

WINE of CARDUI

Mrs. Allen made a conservative statement when she wrote that flooding spells threatened to end her life. Every woman should know that flooding if not checked is sure death. It is nothing more nor less than the emptying of the life blood from the body—bleeding to death. Consumption is not so terrible as this awful calamity when it has gotten beyond control. When the doctors had given up Mrs. Allen and when she had no hope, Wine of Cardui checked the terrible waste and saved her life. Besides saving her life Wine of Cardui brought her back to perfect health. Could there be a more complete and conclusive demonstration than this of what Wine of Cardui can do? If Wine of Cardui cured those terrible chronic spells for Mrs. Allen, would it not do the same for you? Menstrual irregularities, bearing down pains, ovarian troubles, suppression, nervousness and headaches and backaches are only less dangerous symptoms of female weakness and Wine of Cardui cures them all—destroys the last trace and brings perfect health. You need not have the greatest faith in Wine of Cardui. Mrs. Allen didn't. Just give it a trial and let Wine of Cardui cure you just as it did Mrs. Allen. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles Wine of Cardui.

FOR BATTLE OF WORDS

Colorado and Utah Will Strive for Supremacy.

All arrangements for a conjoint debate between the University of Utah and the Colorado College of Colorado Springs have been completed and the two schools will meet here on the 22nd of April. The visitors were given the privilege of selecting a question and have submitted the following one: "Resolved, that the adjudication of disputes between employers and employees should be made a part of the regular administration of justice. Granted, that special courts with appropriate rules of procedure may be established if necessary. Granted, that labor unions may be required to incorporate if necessary."

According to the agreement there will be three contestants on each side, and the judges of the contest will be selected by the visitors from nine names submitted by the locals. With these exceptions the debate will be governed by the rules governing all college debates. In accordance with these rules the locals were given the privilege of first choice, and they have decided to defend the affirmative side of the question. It is the opinion of a number of University professors that this is the hardest question that has ever been submitted to the local school in a contest of this kind, and they say that it speaks well for the rank of the Colorado school. It is hard because it will require good, sound, logic coming almost entirely from the student and not from magazines and various other books, for all that has been written on the labor problem very little has been written on this particular phase of it. The restrictions governing this question make it somewhat theoretical, but nevertheless very interesting. It is a question worthy of consideration.

The question was announced at the University and caused no little comment, especially among the members of the debating club. Dan Alexander, president of the University Debating association, reports that more than twenty students have already signalled their intention of entering the preliminary contest, and that the number is steadily increasing. The first preliminary contest will be held on February 19th, when about six or eight of the best contestants will be selected. A final contest will be held on the following Friday, when the committee will choose the championship team.
